Press Release

GDC Nowshera in collaboration with District Police Rajouri organized a Seminar on the topic “GET HIGH ON LIFE, NOT ON DRUGS”.

GDC Nowshera in collaboration with District Police Rajouri today organized a Seminar based on the theme “Get High On Life, Not On Drugs”. The main objective of organizing this event was to make the youngsters aware about the harmful effects of drugs. The students of the schools, colleges and universities across the country are becoming addictive to drug substances at an alarming rate which is threatening not only to their own future and lives but also affecting their families, societies and ultimately the Nation.

The programme started with the welcome address by Dr. Surinder Kumar, Principal of the College. He formally welcomed the Chief Guest, Ms. Sheema Nabi Qusba, SSP Rajouri and other Guests, Mr. Sukhdev Singh Samyal, ADC Nowshera; Mr. Amit Verma, ASP Nowshera, Dr. Chander Prakash, Resource Person, Mr. Zakir Mirza, SDPO Nowshera, Mr. Pankaj Sharma, SHO Nowshera and Principals of the Higher Secondary Schools of Nowshera. In his welcome speech, Principal of the College stressed upon the various emotional, social and physical factors that lead to drug addiction and the side effects caused by the drugs on our physical and mental health. He also motivated the students to stay away from these substances. He said that the main aim of organizing such events is to spread awareness among the students and prevent the young generation from indulging in drug addiction. He further highlighted the role of these youngsters in spreading the message of “Say no to drugs and Achieve success in life”.

The proceedings of the programme were conducted by Mr. Rakesh Choudhary, Lect. in GGHSS Nowshera. A large number of students and staff of the college and Higher Secondary Schools attended the programme in the smart class room of the college, keeping in view the COVID appropriate behaviour. Six students namely, Simranmeet Kour (NNP Hr. Secondary School); Suhani Gupta (GHSS Nowshera); Akash Kumar (TMP Hr. Sec.); Adil Manhas (GDC Nowshera); Chandandeep Choudhary (BHSS Nowshera) and Karanjeet Kour (Christ High School) expressed their views about the various types of drugs, their harmful effects and illicit drug trafficking.

The Resource Person of the programme, Dr. Chander Prakash, delivered an elaborated lecture on the theme of the seminar. He talked in detail about the various terms related to drugs such as drug abuse, drug addiction and drug dependence. He also deliberated upon the various types of drugs such as depressants, hallucinogens and stimulants and the harmful effects posed by the consumption of these drugs. He also stressed upon the need to increase the will power to stay away from these substances and get out of the vicious cycle of drug addiction.

The program was carried forward with the address of Mr. Sukhdev Singh Samyal, ADC Nowshera who stressed upon the need to protect the youth of our country from the menace of drug abuse. He also urged the students to spread the message to their family, friends and the society at large.

Mr. Amit Verma, ASP Nowshera also shared his views regarding the theme. He revealed the statistical data projecting 10% urban and 11% rural students of the country as potent drug addicts. He motivated the students to stay away from drugs by narrating the story of a lead Engineer whose career as well as life was ruined because of drug addiction.

At last, Ms. Sheema Nabi Qusba, SSP Rajour; the Chief Guest for the Programme, addressed the audience. She talked in detail about the legal and illegal drugs and the various types of pressures that lead to drug addiction. She highlighted the role of teachers, friends, family, society, Police Department and Rehabilitation centres in assisting the victims to come out of the vicious cycle. She encouraged the students to stay away from the drugs and get involved in some constructive activities like Games & Sports, Yoga and Meditation.

At the end, felicitation of meritorious students was done by presenting momentos as a token of encouragement. The programme ended with a formal vote of thanks presented by Mr. Zakir Mirza, SDPO Nowshera.
